

Departed

Mrs. Margaret Cain died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wehrle, after an illness of more than two months. During that time all within the power of human hands was done to relieve her suffering, but without avail, and on Saturday afternoon, January 29th, at 2:05, the last earthly tie was broken and the soul of a noble woman took its flight to the Great Beyond.

Margaret Donlan was born in Clooncott, Ireland, December 25th, 1832. She was united in marriage to Daniel Cain, September 30 1852. She was the mother of five children, three sons and two daughters; one daughter and one son died in infancy, and one son in 1893. In 1864, a few years after the death of her husband, she came to America and located in Madison, Indiana, where she resided until eleven years ago when she came to this city to make her home with her daughter.

She is survived by one brother, P. Donlan, of Clooncott, Ireland, one daughter, Mrs. F. Wehrle, of this city, one son, M. D. Cain, of Indianapolis, Indiana, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at St. John's Catholic church Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when a Requiem Mass was celebrated, and Miss Mona McMeel sang with much feeling Rock of Ages and Face to Face.

The pall bearers were:
H. E. Hoon Ira Scott
J. R. Colgan S. P. Bunch
W. W. Pressly Wm. Backe

Interment was made in Grace-land Cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank all our friends who assisted us during the illness and death of our mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Frank Wehrle
Agnes Wehrle
George Wehrle

Death of Margaret Donlan Cain

Clipped By:

monte54

Tue, Aug 14, 2018